What is Odoo/OpenERP?

ERP stands for Enterprise Resource Planning

Open Source ERP is a software system whose source code is publicly available.

Odoo Open Source ERP provides many built-in modules such as:

- Point of Sale

- Accounting

- HR(Human Resource)

- Project

In this blog, you will learn what is Open Source ERP? What is

Odoo? Why is Odoo becoming more and more powerful? Who can

Implement Odoo for you?

1. Odoo ERP Developer

2. Odoo ERP Techno Functionalist

Odoo ERP ArchitectureOdoo ERP Implementation Methodology

Odoo stands for On-Demand Open Object

Odoo is a large collection of business-related applications and modules like:

- CRM(Customer relationship management)

- Sales management

- E-commerce

- Warehouse management

- Purchase management

- Accounting suit

- Manufacturing management

- HRMS(Human resource management system)

Odoo has more than 14,000 third-party Apps/Plugins available in its app store.

Odoo is one of the widely used open-source ERP solutions in the market.

Why is Odoo becoming more and more popular?

- It is open source
- Flexible
- Scalable
- Custom Readymade Apps
- Global Support
- Proven Product
- User-Friendly
- Up to date with Technology
- Highly Modular
- Easily Integrates with Third-party services
- Industry-Specific Modules
- Less Implementation Cost
- Less implementation Time Frame